Project Angel Heart E-Newsletter

Dear Mindy,

Since our humble beginning in 1991, our mission to provide home-delivered meals, at no cost, to those battling illness has remained unchanged. This year we proudly celebrate delivering our 3 millionth meal to clients in need of our service. A milestone such as this would be unattainable if it were not for the generous support we receive through gifts of time, treasure, and talent.

A heart-felt "thank you" to our community supporters for helping us deliver sustenance, hope, and nutrition, one delicious meal at a time.

"I would not be able to afford food without Project Angel Heart due to the extreme amount of medications I have to buy. I thank the entire staff and volunteers for their efforts and meals." - Mara Jo, 57, living with lupus

Step Up for Cancer on Aug. 2

Step up with Project Angel Heart and help provide nutritious meals to those battling cancer. Last year, 23% of our clients battled some form of the disease. They are among the more than 19,000 Coloradans that will be diagnosed with cancer this year. By supporting our team, you ensure that those coping with cancer are doing so with consistent nutrition, delivered right to their door.

So join a team or make a donation. Every step counts!

Florists help make Project Angel Heart clients smile

Rocky Mountain Teleflora florists are helping to spread smiles and cheer by delivering floral arrangements to Project Angel Heart's Denver Metro clients on July 25, as a part of the annual Teleflora Make Someone Smile project. Recipients will receive a beautiful floral arrangement nestled in a Teleflora keepsake Be Happy Mug. Since Teleflora created this program in 2000, it has grown to become one of the floral industry's leading charitable projects. Project Angel Heart Board Vice-President, BJ Dyer of Bouquets, is chair of the event.

Diners take a bite out of hunger

This year, more than 335 metro area restaurants participated in Dining Out for Life, which counts as more restaurant support in the metro area than in any previous Dining Out for Life event!

DINING OUT FOR LIFE

Thank you to our sponsors, restaurants, community supporters, and media friends for helping to raise an estimated $360,000 for Project Angel Heart client meals! Your generosity ensures that we continue to serve meals to those in need, at no cost.

Thank you for doing your part to ensure that those battling illness are doing so with consistent nutrition delivered right to their door.

Sincerely,

Project Angel Heart
