

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

Tim Gaudette, DGLCC Chairman
303.414.2374
tgaudette@hmbrown.com

Denver Gay & Lesbian Chamber of Commerce Announces 2011 Business Awards Recipients

DENVER, CO: The Denver Gay & Lesbian Chamber of Commerce (DGLCC), is proud to announce the recipients of the 2011 DGLCC Business Awards. Recipients will receive their awards at the DGLCC Business Awards Dinner, honoring gay and gay-supportive business owners and professionals, on Thursday, November 10, 2011, from 6:00 P.M. to 9:00 P.M., at the Tuscan Ballroom on the campus of the University of Denver.

DGLCC congratulates the following Business Award Recipients:

Brian Belt, At The Beach & Robin Schoh, Waxing the City, as DGLCC Entrepreneurial Man / Woman of the Year – Recognized for their successful business and for serving as role models in the GLBT Community.

Christiano Sosa, The Denver Foundation and Marilyn Manning, REV Networking, as DGLCC Professional Man/Woman of the Year – Honored for making outstanding advances for the GLBT Community through their employment and their professional and community activities.

Mitch Morrissey, Denver District Attorney, as DGLCC Individual Community Ally Award – Awarded for his remarkable efforts for the benefit of the GLBT Community.

CH2M Hill, as DGLCC Corporate Community Ally Award – Recognizing an entity that has demonstrated great support to the GLBT Community.

Project Angel Heart, as DGLCC Nonprofit Organization of the Year - Awarded to a GLBT-friendly nonprofit organization that has demonstrated the highest standards of fiscal management and leadership in the community.

Tickets to the DGLCC Business Awards Dinner are available for $99 per person on or before October 13, 2011, and $125 if bought after that date. Visit www.denverglc.org for ticket information, or contact Cindy Saylor at 303-731-1908 or by email at csaylor@hpnglobal.com.

Past DGLCC Business Award Recipients

The 2011 Business Award Recipients will join the ranks of professionals and organizations previously honored for their work in the gay community. The following is a sample of professionals and organizations honored from past years: Kaiser Permanente, Xcel Energy, The Denver Center for the Performing Arts, John Hickenlooper, Urban Peak, Jewish Family Service of CO, The Center, Erica Johnson, Judge Mary Celeste

About Denver Gay & Lesbian Chamber of Commerce

The DGLCC is the statewide gay chamber of commerce. Created in 1992 and made up of more than 200 professionals and companies supportive of gay and lesbian people in business, the DGLCC promotes the economic advancement of its members through business education and networking events. For more information about the DGLCC, visit www.denverglc.org.